DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Tingskog USP 5,351,810.

3. Claims 11 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Mayer et al. (US. Pat. No. 6,032,789 see figure 1 (same as First Office Action), lower left and right portions of his belt meet claim language).

4. Applicant's arguments filed October 4, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

RE claim 10, See Tingskog figure 4 (from First Office Action), because of rib 11, the examiner asserts that the bending stiffness of the belt is equivalent whether a longitudinal joint exists or not.

RE claim 11, Even though the applicant has invoked the 6th paragraph of USC 112 (“means for”), there are no further structural limitations in the specification distinguishing the applicant's device over the device of Mayer et al.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
